AN OLD YOUNG MAN.

BY OLIVER WENDELL HOLMES.

As though the crowd, dismayed by the November, late I strayed, A lonely miser of the wood I sought for the solitude;

When I saw the leaves were spread; I loved to see them fall, and when they came I would cheer them on.

When I saw the leaves were spread; I loved to see them fall, and when they came I would cheer them on.

When I saw the leaves were spread; I loved to see them fall, and when they came I would cheer them on.

THE AETIC REGIONS.

We make the following interesting extracts from the Cincinnati Commercial's report of a lecture delivered in that city by Dr. I. A. Hayes, the Arctic explorer.

An interesting explanation was given of glaciers and icebergs, and their formation. The lecturer narrated his experience with one iceberg which he met on his travels, which towered 315 feet high.

There had been many conferences about the day. Tom was coming home for vacation. Henry was to leave his first holiday.

"I shall we receive, mother?" said Carrie; "I think we had better not."

She did not wish mother to think it would be a trial to her to give up "recreation."

That again was a pleasant group that gathered about the "make-table" on Jan. 1st, 1875, as it was seen in the dream.

It was the first complete gathering, since the reverse. Mr. Henslow took the Bible—he had left his wife to read and pray with the children when he left in town—and read a psalm.

They knelt down and he prayed—a simple, thankful, humble prayer. They rose from their knees, Henry, who had never heard his father pray, wiping his eyes with his hand.

He had joined the church in the city in which he worked; because "he saw he must be one thing or the other, be thoroughly good, or go to ruin;" and a young man, he could not put him into a gentleman's Bible class.

The rest had followed. "I have some good news to tell you all," said Mr. Henslow, who I kept for his morning, the "house" they all lived in.

THE RETURN WAY.

The New York Tribune gives the following statement, which may astonish those who suppose that this is the only country in the world where existence is endurable:

For several days past many persons, mostly German, have besieged the offices of the Commissioners of Emigration at Garden City, and besought them to provide a passage to Europe.

Most of the men professed to be without means, while others asserted that they had a portion of the passage money.

It was in consequence of this that the Commissioners have provided means for them to return to Germany, but in some few instances where only a small deficiency existed, the balance was supplied by the Commissioners.

Every case they came provided with letters from Germany in which they were assured that labor is plenty and profitable at home, and that the demand for mechanics is greater than for many years previous.

Information received by the Commissioners themselves from all parts of Prussia shows that the situation has not been exaggerated.

Skilled labor is scarce, and the number of persons for emigration has been paid for years past.

Book-binders, mechanics, type-setters and mechanics in the different trades are receiving from ten to thirty dollars a week, and only one-third that sum used to be paid.

This, considering the prices of rent, provisions and living generally, is equivalent to as many dollars here. Accomplished book-keepers with large families are receiving from $3,000 to $4,000 a year.

Business relations were opened with other nations who were prior to the war had only trifling commercial relations with the Prussian provinces.

There was an increasing internal and external demand for the manufactures of Prussia, and skilled labor was sought for. But the war had killed off many of them.

It had taken the bone and sinew of the land, and many who had not been killed had been maimed for life.

This created a great want, and the price of labor advanced. Manufacturers and tradesmen as well as the friends of Germans in this country are sending to America for them, pro

—A man who resides on Spring street, was bitten in the knee joint by a large dog formerly owned by Bill Barry. A physician was immediately called, who cauterized the wound.

—The funeral of the families of Calvin Bliss, Dr. W. H. Bliss, and P. Minnie, and several of their relatives, took place on Christmas evening, at the residence of C. D. Bliss. About fifty persons were present, and a good time enjoyed.

—Edward C. Davison, late of Pittsfield, and a graduate of the Medical Department of the University, class of '73, died at his residence in this city, on Monday, aged 30 years. He was a son-in-law of David B. Bentley of the Third ward.

—At the late New England supper much was said about Ben. Butler and "spoons," but after the supper was over it was found that several spoons were missing. Was the spirit of Ben. present, or is spoon-taking a New England custom?

—Hiram Klime, familiarly known as "Yankee," was knocked down and kicked on Tuesday evening at an establishment on Main street. He was afterwards arrested and lodged in jail, but was released the next morning by order of the chief of Police.

—Yesterday morning Mrs. Smith, a widow living on Thayer street, was arrested by one of the police for stealing wood from Edward Sumner. She was taken before Justice McKim and pleaded guilty to the charge, and was released on payment of costs.

—A case was tried on Monday before Justice Clark, in which Dr. Lewitt was plaintiff and McCarly, defendant. The suit was brought by the doctor for damages for injuries received on account of having his carriage run into by McCarly a few weeks since. Trial by jury; verdict for Lewitt—damages $42.50.

—One night last week the auction store of C. D. Bliss was entered by a burglar, who carried off $75 worth of clothing. A man was seen to unlock the front door by parties passing, but as they supposed he belonged to the establishment no notice was taken of his movements.

—Wednesday evening the ladies connected with the Catholic Church at Dexter, held a festival in their old church; 800 tickets were disposed of, and a handsome sum realized, which is to go towards furnishing the new church, to be dedicated Sunday next, the third inst.

—For some time an old feud has existed between George Otto and Abram Kleine, which finally came to a termination last Saturday night, at a dance hall in Ypsilanti, kept by one Schade. High words ensued between the parties, when Otto drew his revolver and shot Kleine in the arm.

—On Wednesday evening a little entertainment took place between Charles Boylan and Philander Jones, at the store of E. Blood. Three rounds in all were fought. Time was called for the fourth round, when Boylan was falling to the "scratch," the battle was decided in favor of Philander.

—The weather, which for the last few weeks has been very mild and pleasant, took a sudden turn on Monday evening. A cold piercing wind commenced blowing from the west, which continued until Wednesday, but at the present writing it is more pleasant, with every prospect of a fine day, January first.

—One day last week William Mason, a resident of Northfield, after making a number of purchases, concluded to remain until evening before going home. He hitched his team near Hall's, and after being absent a short time, returned and found that the weight of four and some groceries had been spirited away.

—About six weeks ago E. Lesner, policeman at the Central Depot, caused the arrest of seven hackmen for a violation of one of the city ordinances. Six of them pleaded guilty and paid their fines, but Clarence Pley, by the aid of counsel, went to trial, B. F. Granger appearing for the defense and O. Hawkins for the defendant. The case was tried twice, the jury each time disagreeing. So matters rested until the 26th instant, when the suit against Pley was discontinued, and he was discharged by the Court.

Christmas Festival at Washtenaw County Poor House.

The usual Christmas festival was held at our Poor House on the afternoon of the day. After a religious exercise, the articles prepared by the ladies of St. Luke's Church, Ypsilanti, were distributed from a lighted tree, and packages of various articles, furnished from St. Andrew's Church, Ann Arbor, were delivered. The supply of presents and provisions was ample for the 150 inmates. The inmates were furnished in their department; with this exception and about 10 invalids, all were assembled. A large number of visitors were present from Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti.

It is a pleasure to most strangers at the County House, to hear their commendations of the cleanliness and order prevailing under the management of Mr. and Mrs. Van Riper. All who desire that our poor should be properly provided for, must also express their gratitude to the Mr. Heston and Miss Walker in charge of the insane, and to the Hospital Steward.

These faithful guardians are doing the best under a system universally acknowledged by those specially informed as full of difficulties and discouragements.

Look at the Poor House system under its best aspect—150 paupers—say 30 inmates well clothed, fed and protected, but no treatment for cure and no employment—noting to amuse them to all about them, and—admits an annoyance as even an idiot may be improved—the sick, with an suitable hospital—the aged, so mingled with others as to forbid the quiet and comfort they need—the idle and vicious, and no employment to stimulate them, and induce them to relieve the county of their charge.

An article by H. W. Lord, Esq., of Pontiac, in a late Detroit paper shows a more excellent way. It will appear in the forthcoming report of the State Commissioners for penal and pauper institutions. Classification is the watch word of reform, and this means enlarging the system that now gives us the Deaf and Dumb, the Blind, the Insane Asylums, and the school for Colored children. We want a State Lunatic Hospital, Old People's Refuge, simple Insane Asylum accommodations, and Work Houses.

Where is the interest that at one time seemed to gather round a Hospital in this city? Whence should come the special interest in that enterprise? Said a venerable physician, once a Regent, to the writer, "Sir, I am so convinced of the importance of a Hospital to this city, and so persuaded that it will soon or later suffer for want of it, that if the Professors, Edie Stevens, Flora, J. D. C. D. Blosser, Lady Assistant Steward."

—Two men who said they were from Buffalo, N. Y., and giving their names as Andrew Clark and William Clark, were arrested at Jackson last Saturday by Frank Whiting, Deputy Sheriff from Saline, for the larceny of furs from Bortle's Hotel at Saline. They were lodged in the Washtenaw County jail, and their case is now pending before Justice Forth.

—At a late meeting of the Regents, an invitation was extended to Dr. Tappan, ex-President of the University, inviting him to attend the next annual commencement. A letter has been received by President Angell in which the Dr. states that it would be a great undertaking for a man in his feeble health and advanced years to make a journey of so great a distance, but death and circumstances permitting, he would accept their kind invitation.

—Christmas day two young men, well known in this city went to Dexter for the purpose of having a good time with the boys. They had not been there a great while before the Marshal arrested them for disorderly conduct and advanced them to the office of Ed. Appleton, Justice of the Peace, who after hearing their statement, imposed a fine of five dollars and gave them a short lecture on the evils of intemperance. The young gentlemen were very much affected.

—Bridgewater Grange of Patrons of Husbandry have elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Daniel LeBaron, Master; D. C. Walker, Oresters; W. F. Hess, Lecturer; J. Linden, Steward; W. M. Palmer, Assistant Steward; Mrs. Smith, Chaplain; W. W. Judd, Treasurer; Elbert Bradner, Secretary; E. Mitchell, Gate-keeper; Mrs. Ellen Mansfield, Ceres; Mrs. F. D. Palmer, Pomona; Octavia Walter, Flora; Ruth Smith, Lady Assistant Steward.

—A man who resides on Spring street, was bitten in the knee joint by a large dog formerly owned by Bill Barry. A physician was immediately called, who cauterized the wound.

—The funeral of the families of Calvin Bliss, Dr. W. H. Bliss, and P. Minnie, and several of their relatives, took place on Christmas evening, at the residence of C. D. Bliss. About fifty persons were present, and a good time enjoyed.

—Edward C. Davison, late of Pittsfield, and a graduate of the Medical Department of the University, class of '73, died at his residence in this city, on Monday, aged 30 years. He was a son-in-law of David B. Bentley of the Third ward.

—At the late New England supper much was said about Ben. Butler and "spoons," but after the supper was over it was found that several spoons were missing. Was the spirit of Ben. present, or is spoon-taking a New England custom?

—Hiram Klime, familiarly known as "Yankee," was knocked down and kicked on Tuesday evening at an establishment on Main street. He was afterwards arrested and lodged in jail, but was released the next morning by order of the chief of Police.

—Yesterday morning Mrs. Smith, a widow living on Thayer street, was arrested by one of the police for stealing wood from Edward Sumner. She was taken before Justice McKim and pleaded guilty to the charge, and was released on payment of costs.

—A case was tried on Monday before Justice Clark, in which Dr. Lewitt was plaintiff and McCarly, defendant. The suit was brought by the doctor for damages for injuries received on account of having his carriage run into by McCarly a few weeks since. Trial by jury; verdict for Lewitt—damages $42.50.

—One night last week the auction store of C. D. Bliss was entered by a burglar, who carried off $75 worth of clothing. A man was seen to unlock the front door by parties passing, but as they supposed he belonged to the establishment no notice was taken of his movements.

—Wednesday evening the ladies connected with the Catholic Church at Dexter, held a festival in their old church; 800 tickets were disposed of, and a handsome sum realized, which is to go towards furnishing the new church, to be dedicated Sunday next, the third inst.

—For some time an old feud has existed between George Otto and Abram Kleine, which finally came to a termination last Saturday night, at a dance hall in Ypsilanti, kept by one Schade. High words ensued between the parties, when Otto drew his revolver and shot Kleine in the arm.

—On Wednesday evening a little entertainment took place between Charles Boylan and Philander Jones, at the store of E. Blood. Three rounds in all were fought. Time was called for the fourth round, when Boylan was falling to the "scratch," the battle was decided in favor of Philander.

—The weather, which for the last few weeks has been very mild and pleasant, took a sudden turn on Monday evening. A cold piercing wind commenced blowing from the west, which continued until Wednesday, but at the present writing it is more pleasant, with every prospect of a fine day, January first.

—One day last week William Mason, a resident of Northfield, after making a number of purchases, concluded to remain until evening before going home. He hitched his team near Hall's, and after being absent a short time, returned and found that the weight of four and some groceries had been spirited away.

—About six weeks ago E. Lesner, policeman at the Central Depot, caused the arrest of seven hackmen for a violation of one of the city ordinances. Six of them pleaded guilty and paid their fines, but Clarence Pley, by the aid of counsel, went to trial, B. F. Granger appearing for the defense and O. Hawkins for the defendant. The case was tried twice, the jury each time disagreeing. So matters rested until the 26th instant, when the suit against Pley was discontinued, and he was discharged by the Court.

The Flight Through the Wood Shed.

THE ADVENTURES OF TWO FRESHMEN. If there is anything besides his class standing an average Ann Arbor student takes pride in, it is his athletic prowess, the articles prepared by the ladies of St. Luke's Church, Ypsilanti, were distributed from a lighted tree, and packages of various articles, furnished from St. Andrew's Church, Ann Arbor, were delivered. The supply of presents and provisions was ample for the 150 inmates. The inmates were furnished in their department; with this exception and about 10 invalids, all were assembled. A large number of visitors were present from Ann Arbor and Ypsilanti.

It is a pleasure to most strangers at the County House, to hear their commendations of the cleanliness and order prevailing under the management of Mr. and Mrs. Van Riper. All who desire that our poor should be properly provided for, must also express their gratitude to the Mr. Heston and Miss Walker in charge of the insane, and to the Hospital Steward.

These faithful guardians are doing the best under a system universally acknowledged by those specially informed as full of difficulties and discouragements.

Look at the Poor House system under its best aspect—150 paupers—say 30 inmates well clothed, fed and protected, but no treatment for cure and no employment—noting to amuse them to all about them, and—admits an annoyance as even an idiot may be improved—the sick, with an suitable hospital—the aged, so mingled with others as to forbid the quiet and comfort they need—the idle and vicious, and no employment to stimulate them, and induce them to relieve the county of their charge.

An article by H. W. Lord, Esq., of Pontiac, in a late Detroit paper shows a more excellent way. It will appear in the forthcoming report of the State Commissioners for penal and pauper institutions. Classification is the watch word of reform, and this means enlarging the system that now gives us the Deaf and Dumb, the Blind, the Insane Asylums, and the school for Colored children. We want a State Lunatic Hospital, Old People's Refuge, simple Insane Asylum accommodations, and Work Houses.

Where is the interest that at one time seemed to gather round a Hospital in this city? Whence should come the special interest in that enterprise? Said a venerable physician, once a Regent, to the writer, "Sir, I am so convinced of the importance of a Hospital to this city, and so persuaded that it will soon or later suffer for want of it, that if the Professors, Edie Stevens, Flora, J. D. C. D. Blosser, Lady Assistant Steward."

—Two men who said they were from Buffalo, N. Y., and giving their names as Andrew Clark and William Clark, were arrested at Jackson last Saturday by Frank Whiting, Deputy Sheriff from Saline, for the larceny of furs from Bortle's Hotel at Saline. They were lodged in the Washtenaw County jail, and their case is now pending before Justice Forth.

—At a late meeting of the Regents, an invitation was extended to Dr. Tappan, ex-President of the University, inviting him to attend the next annual commencement. A letter has been received by President Angell in which the Dr. states that it would be a great undertaking for a man in his feeble health and advanced years to make a journey of so great a distance, but death and circumstances permitting, he would accept their kind invitation.

Detroit Live Stock Market.

MICHIGAN CENTRAL YARDS. A review of the cattle market shows less changes in the prices ruled for the year, compared with the years 1873 and 1872. In the prosperous season of 1872 cattle of a choice quality brought no higher prices than to-day. The qualities continue about the same, farmers selling stock before maturity, owing to the high prices realized by the sale of hay, grain and fodder generally.

The hog market has presented a study to operators in that line. It was firmly anticipated that prices would decline to at least the rulings of the former year; consignments being speedily closed out at figures ranging from 86 to 87, according to quality. Prices ruled in 1872 from $3 to $4, and in 1873, $3.50 to $4.50. Qualities improved rapidly this year. Consignments were closed out this week at $5 to $6 for extra choice, and $5.50 to $6 for choice. Pigs ruled at $4.50 and $5.

In the sheep market the most gratifying phase is the steady improvement in qualities. Prices realized during the year were fully up to the prosperous year 1872. Operations in this line have also been more extensive, owing to additional facilities for handling them. Choice, smooth lots closed out this week at $4.00 and $4.50, being about the same as realized in 1872. Medium qualities closed at $3.75 and $4.20. The bulk of transactions were in this line.

KING'S CATTLE YARDS.

DETOIT, Monday evening, Dec. 28. CATTLE. Receipts were very light, scarcely any lots of good cattle being offered, but as the local trade was well stocked last week the demand was very light. The few real good cattle offered were held higher. Nominal quotations are: Choice heaves, shipping steers and heifers, weighing from 1,200 to 1,600 lbs. $4 00a5 00. Good butchers' steers and heifers, averaging 1,000 to 1,100 lbs. 3 00a3 75. Working oxen, well fitted, averaging 1,000 to 1,600 lbs. 3 50a4 25. Cows, common to choice 3 25a4 00. Stockers' and packers' medium steers and heifers, in decent lots, 800 to 1,000 lbs. 2 50a3 50. SHEEP. Very few were offered; the demand was full better. The only sale noted was that of 105 fat little sheep, averaging 80 lbs. sold by Edward Sheehan, at 1-1-1c.
