LOCAL AFFAIRS.

PROTECTION FIRE COMPANY held its annual election last evening, and the following were chosen: Fred Sorg, President; G. W. Finer, 1st Assistant; L. C. Risdon, 2d Asst.; N. P. Hill, 3d Asst.; Christopher Clark, Secretary; C. H. Worden, Treasurer; James Atkinson, Steward; Michael Clark, 1st Warden; J. T. Jacobs, 2d; E. J. Johnson, 3d; G. A. Gilbert, 4th; C. Millan, Capt. of Hose; Thos. Hoban, 1st Asst. Fred Sorg and G. W. Finer were elected delegates to the State Convention, to be held at Bay City, Creek April 13th.

On Monday evening about 8 o'clock, four prisoners confined in the county jail, made a bold and successful strike for freedom. Sheriff Fleming was in Detroit at the time, and his turnkey, Mr. White, going into the jail to place the prisoners in their cells, was knocked down by them and his keys taken away. They then unlocked the iron grating and escaped, the wooden door having been left open by the turnkey. Mrs. Fleming, who came up to the door just as they were coming out, was knocked over and severely bruised. Telegrams and messengers were immediately dispatched in every direction, but as yet the search has proved fruitless. Three of the men were tracked about two miles, starting northwest of town and making a circuit around toward Sahnine. The prisoners were the negroes Lytle, Williams, and the two Sawyers, who were arrested some time since for stealing wheat, wood, clover seed, etc., in the vicinity of Sahnine.

Democratic Ward Caucuses. The several Democratic ward caucuses, for the nomination of candidates for ward officers and the election of delegates to the City Convention, were held last evening. The following was the result:

FIRST WARD. Alderman—Joseph D. Irish. Constable—J. H. Morris, A. Widemann, J. J. Marshall, J. F. Schulz, D. P. Groves, H. J. Beakes, D. Kramer, E. B. Pond.

SECOND WARD. Alderman—Amos D. Besmer. Constable—Jasper Imus. Delegates—W. H. Lewis, P. McKernan, J. G. Grossman, John N. Gott, Aaron Weil, G. Bohn, G. F. Lutz, T. W. Hooper.

THIRD WARD. Alderman—Alanson B. Cole. Constable—Thomas J. Hoskins. Delegates—C. Kearns, L. Shulters, John Brown, George W. Palmer, E. Duffy, W. H. McIntyre, John Clair, W. Copeland.

FOURTH WARD. Alderman—Alexander McDonold. Constable—Eugene Wicks. Delegates—L. C. Risdon, G. W. Eifer, C. J. Kuntner, J. F. Avery, W. Tremain, Peter Carey, M. J. O'Reilly, John Clancy.

FIFTH WARD. Alderman—August Herz. Constable—Wm. O'Hara. Delegates—J. H. Ortman, Chas. Manly, M. M. Seabolt, Henry Kellogg, Isaac Dunn, Chas. Place, S. Owen, S. Bowen.

FOURTH WARD REPUBLICAN CAUCUS.—The party of "great moral ideas" had a happy time at their caucus in the Fourth ward Wednesday evening. A large number of the "wetter class" were in attendance, but were outnumbered and overpowered by the "rooks."

The meeting being called to order the business of electing delegates to the City Convention was first proceeded with. It was voted to elect each delegate separately; two were thus elected, the "better class" getting "scooped" each time. Seeing the uselessness of any further contest, considering that the "rooks" had it all their own way, Wm. Noble arose and moved that the balance of the delegates be elected on one ticket, which motion was adopted. A lively scramble was then made to prepare tickets, a list was made, but before many were written, J. F. Lawrence moved that the manner be again changed, that delegates be elected en bloc, which was adopted. Lawrence, having a list of the names, took a position and acted as "moving man." An effort was made to slip in the names of some of the men as Dr. A. B. Palmer, Wm. Noble and Prof. Oney—but it was no go, the vote upon each being a thundering "no." After the session the "rooks" were crowding loudly over the fact that they had "cleaned out the 4-d-puss cusses." According to reports similar "whirls" will be had in other wards.

WHERE'S THE HORSE?—F. L. Axtell sold Frederick S. Chapin a horse, for which he received $140. Upon that horse Axtell's father held a chattel mortgage, and he stipulated that on the payment of the money by Chapin, the horse should be released from the mortgage. It seems that this was done before the money was actually paid over, and upon going to the bank to get the money a garnish was served on Chapin for the sum which the Axtells owed one McLean, and hence Axtell failed to become possessed of the $140. Shortly afterwards the horse was missed from Chapin's stable, and now the question is: Where's the horse? Two young men who were arrested on suspicion of having taken it, were discharged, and no clue to the equine quadruped doth yet appear.

SCIO.—The Democracy of Scio have made the following nominations: Supervisor—S. W. Holmes. Clerk—Timothy B. Tammey. Treasurer—F. H. Krause. Commissioner of Highways—Patrick McGuinness. Superintendent of Schools—Archibald McMillan. Justice of the Peace—David Almondinger and Copeland.

SCHOOL INSPECTOR—Jacob J. Jolele. Constables—Y. H. Potter, C. W. Guest, M. Brennan, C. Henry.

EDITORS ABUSE!—The laws of the State—organic or statutory—may not make it a necessary qualification that an alderman should be a tax-payer. It therefore, may be no objection to the Republican candidates nominated on Wednesday evening, that five of them paid an aggregate tax on the last rolls of less than $4. But are they better conveyed interests of our city and state in the hands of such men, or would they be better managed and protected by aldermen who, when they vote to appropriate the people's moneys, will do so knowing that they, personally, will need help for the bills? A TAX-PAYER.

UNREQUITTED AFFECTION.—She was about seventeen years of age, of a family belonging to the "lower strata" of society. He was said to be a law student. She had been a servant girl in the family of one of our citizens. Leaving her place of occupation, she returned after a few weeks, decked out in gay attire, to make her former employer a visit. She related how fortunate she had been in securing a "love of her husband." This he, however, was not her husband yet, but then it was all arranged, and there was only need of a delay long enough to get ready the bridal outfit. She thought it would be necessary to go to Detroit for the green silk, but had concluded that a suitable traveling dress could be procured in Ann Arbor. The object of her fond affection had returned to the home of his father for a brief sojourn of two weeks, and upon his return the two loving hearts were to be welded into one. After the consolidation they were to take up their permanent residence in Chicago. But, alas! from the irregularity of the mails or of something else, no tidings of her knight errant have reached the anxious maiden; and as the days glide swiftly by, the prospect grows stronger that the home of his father for a brief sojourn on the ragged edge of despair, rather than to Chicago. No more will the curling locks and Tullonian air of her charming Adonis greet the admiring vision of the expectant Venus; and the fruit which appeared last ripening will be turned to ashes on her lips. So it seems now at least. Sic transit gloria matronum.

KNIGHTS' TEMPLAR INSTALLATIONS.—The officers of Ann Arbor Commandery No. 13, K. T., were publicly installed last Friday evening by E. I. Gardiel, P. G. C., of Detroit, assisted by John N. Gott, who acted as Marshal. There was quite a large attendance. The part of the P. G. C., in the ceremony was not performed so impressively, perhaps, as the audience had expected. After the installation the audience was served with refreshments prepared by Hangsterfer, and after this came a social. Everything passed off pleasantly. The following are the officers installed: Jas. Boyd, Eminent Commander. L. C. Risdon, Generalissimo. Carlos N. Webb, Capt. General. W. D. Harriman, Prelate. W. J. Johnson, Treasurer. W. A. Lowrey, Recorder. C. J. Kintner, Senior Warden. C. S. Miller, Junior Warden. M. Fleming, Sword-bearer. Frederick Sorg, Standard-bearer. John P. Little, Warden.

DON'T TAKE COUNTY PAPERS.—A few evenings since a gentleman from a distant part of the county, remaining in the city over night, stepped into one of the business houses, and after conversing a while asked to see the Argus of that day. A search was made for it, but it could not be found. The gentleman suggested to the young man in charge, who was the proprietor, that perhaps his father did not take the paper. The young man replied that he "did not know whether he does or not, I never pay any attention to county papers, and consider them a d-d poor investment any how." The gentleman asked the youngster what papers were his favorites, he replied that he did not know. An old-fashioned spelling school was held at the residence of S. M. Cutchson, last Friday evening, for the benefit of the Ladies' Library Association. At which quite an amount of money was realized from admission fees.

DENTER. A fire broke out in the barn of Garret Wood, in the township of Dexter, on Wednesday night and consumed the barn and contents, including one horse, and harness, tools and implements, of various kinds. It is thought to have been caused by a spark from a pipe. The loss will amount to some hundred dollars.—Leader.
