

Michigan Argus.

FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 18, 1875.

If you wish to have your Probate or other legal advertising done in the ARGUS, do not forget to ask the Judge of Probate and Circuit Court Commissioners to make their orders accordingly. A request will be granted.

LOCAL AFFAIRS.

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE ARGUS—$1.50 per year.

Two runaways on Huron street, Sunday afternoon—one carriage badly demolished.

The Congregational Sabbath School have a picnic at Firemen's Park to-morrow afternoon.

Large numbers of wild pigeons are nesting in this vicinity, some of which are within the city limits.

Mrs. Brown, who resides at "McMahon's Mill," fell from a wagon Tuesday, and broke one of her wrists.

A grand picnic is to be held in David Dewey's grove, Pittsford, to-morrow afternoon. A large gathering is expected.

The sportsmen of this vicinity are now awaiting the arrival of July fifth, at which time they are privileged to shoot woodcock.

Judge Kingsley has been visiting his old friends in this city during the last week, and will return to Corunna again in a few days.

Dr. W. H. Jackson has obtained the rooms over Bach & Abel's store, and will remove his Dental rooms thereto in a few days.

Prof. Terry is to give the oration before the Literary Societies at the coming commencement at Wooster University, Wooster, Ohio.

We learn that the Hessian fly is working extensively in the wheat fields of the southwestern part of the county, doing great damage.

The closing address at the Commencement exercises of the Young Ladies' Seminary, at Monroe, yesterday, was delivered by President Angell of the University.

Business for the week opened lively at the "law dispensary" of Justice Clark, Monday, nine civil and one criminal suits were commenced, and two or three cases tried.

Petty thieves were again taken Monday night, and made a raid on house plants and flower gardens. Among the victims were A. H. Hunt, Dr. P. B. Rose, and Judge Colver.

A parish meeting of the Congregational Society will be held this evening, at the Church, at which the question of completing their new Church building will probably be determined.

We learn that John Livingstone, of Livonia, Ontario, a brother of Dr. Livingstone, the great African explorer, will be in this city during Commencement week to attend the exercises.

There will be a strawberry and ice cream festival Tuesday evening, June 22d, at the Presbyterian Church. A variety of tableaux will be exhibited which will add to the interest of the entertainment.

The Father Mathew Temperance Society of Detroit, will celebrate the national anniversary of this city on the fifth of July, with an excursion and picnic. It is estimated that the excursionists will number at least 5,000 persons.

Louis Knapp, of the Third ward, claims to have the sprigliest terrier dog in the State. While cleaning out the store room of V. Cole, in the Maynard block, Wednesday, his dog caught and killed thirty-eight mice. Time: twenty minutes.

The second match game of base ball was played between the Ethna's, of Detroit, and the University club, Saturday, upon the grounds of the latter. The game was won by the Ethna's, by a score of 7 to 6. The game was witnessed by a large number of citizens.

Dr. A. K. Hale, of the firm of Hale & Thomas, arrived in town a few days since from the home of his father, Adams, N. Y., where he has been spending the past few months for the benefit of his health, which is slightly improved. He again leaves for the East to-day.

Last Sabbath was the sixth anniversary of Rev. H. L. Hubbell's connection with the Congregational Church as its pastor. At the morning service an anniversary discourse was preached, in which a review of his labors and what the church had accomplished were given.

The fees to be charged for domestic money-orders will be charged on and after July 1, 1875, as follows, viz.: on orders not exceeding $15, 10 cents; over $15, and not exceeding $30, 15 cents; over $30, and not exceeding $40, 20 cents; on $40, and not exceeding $50, 25 cents.

The public schools of this city will close for the year on Thursday next, the exercises of the graduating class of the High School, taking place on Friday, at 10 o'clock A. M., in Union School Hall. The friends of the class and the public generally are invited to be present.

During the storm of last Friday evening, the house of Willard A. Nelson, near Whitmore Lake, was struck by lightning, tearing off the roof, plastering, and performing other antics, but no one was injured. We have not learned the amount of damage; insured in the Washburn Mutual.

Judge Turner came to this city Tuesday, to hold an adjourned term of the Circuit Court, at which it was intended that the trial of the Sutherland divorce case should take place. The Judge finding no business awaiting him, adjourned the court until July 7th, and returned to his home.

An excursion party from Wayne, numbering about 300, mostly children, arrived in this city Wednesday morning, accompanied by a band of music. The day was spent in visiting the University buildings, cemetery and the city. They brought their dinner which was served in the M. E. Church.

The trial of Charles Holliday, for assault and battery upon Jeff Davis, took place Saturday morning. He was found guilty, sentenced to pay a fine of $20 and costs, or confinement in the Detroit House of Correction for 60 days. The case has been appealed to the Circuit Court, and the defendant admitted to bail.

Fraternity Lodge, No. 266, F. & A. M., held its annual election Wednesday evening, and the following officers were chosen for the ensuing year: John P. Litter, W. M.; John M. Slater, S. W.; J. Sprague, J. W.; C. M. H. Hiscock, Secretary; Dr. W. B. Smith, Treasurer; John Armstrong, S. D.; A. J. Edgerton, J. D.

Mack & Schmidt have opened an extensive stock of lace shawls and socks, the largest yet brought to this city, and will make a specialty of their sale during the next ten days. These goods have been purchased at a great advantage, and will be sold at prices as low as any other dealers in the State can obtain them.

Jake Littleblue, the "horse tamer," a few days since endeavored to put some style in his horses, which did not stop up according to his animal, by taking a spade and going for the animal. The result was the horse laid down on the road and "turned up its toes." Jake says he "don't care for the horse, he has plenty of money to buy another."

To all lovers of music, the coming of the Boston Philharmonic Club, Monday, June 21, will be a most enjoyable treat. The members of this club all possess the reputation of being perfect each in their several parts, while as accompanists or concertists, they are scarcely excelled. See the list of performers given in our advertising columns.

C. W. Taylor, of Ann Arbor town, met with a severe accident a few days since while on his way to the city, having stopped on the road to converse with some friends, on stepping upon the wheel to again get into his wagon on the horses started, his foot getting caught between the wheel and bolt, throwing him heavily upon the ground. His foot and leg were badly injured.

—Last evening Golden Rule Lodge, No. 159, F. & A. M., elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Jay Roath, W. M.; I. C. Haury, S. W.; C. M. Jones, J. W.; Chas. Spoor, Treas.; Chas. A. Chapin, Secy.; Chas. J. Kintner, S. D.; DeWitt O. Fall, J. D.

A large bottle of acid collapsed in the hands of L. S. Lerch yesterday morning, while being carried to the rear of his store to be opened, throwing the entire contents upon his pants and boots. Damages: a new pair of pants, a new pair of boots, stockings and drawers, destroyed; burned feet and ankles, and the loss of seven pounds of acid.

Patrick Donnelly, of the firm of J. & P. Donnelly, died in this city last Friday. He had been in feeble health for several months past, but not until a few weeks previous to his death was he removed from his place of business or from among his many friends in the city. His funeral was attended Sunday, the procession was the largest ever witnessed in the city.

The residence of a maiden lady named Timmins, about a mile and a half from the village of Chelsea, was entered Wednesday morning by some one not yet positively known. In her efforts to drive the intruder away, Miss Timmins was terribly cut about the face and two of her teeth were knocked out. The perpetrator of the outrage is supposed to be a colored man who has been working in the neighborhood, as in his flight he left his hat, which resembles the one worn by him.

Agent Sharpless says that the services of the day watchman at the depot has not been dispensed with, that one is constantly on duty, and that it is impossible to keep the raft of boys from the station and off the trains.

The school of Miss C. Trussell, in Pittsfield, had a picnic at Whitman's Lake, Saturday. The party was not confined to the school, but was joined by a number of other persons, including the Sperry, Dewey, Hills, Wilsons, Mills, Monroes, Hurds, etc., numbering, in all, 50 persons, taking with them a good supply of eatables and refreshments.

The lake was a little rough, but did not prevent the party from freely indulging in boating, fishing, etc., and proved quite an event to many who rarely leave home for a day's indulgence in the boyish sports of childhood. All expressed themselves as having a grand time.

Capt. Revenaugh has received official reports from several military companies, of the State, to the effect that nearly all the invitations issued by the committee for the coming celebration, have been accepted.

Invitations have been issued to several societies and organizations, among which are the Grangers of Washtenaw County, who are expected to appear in full regalia. Every thing possible is being done by our citizens to render the celebration a success. In our issue of next week a full programme of the order of exercises for the day will appear.

SUMMER CLOTHING.—We have not had much warm weather this season, but are likely to have before the summer is over, and men and boys want to know where to find summer clothing that will suit and at prices that will please. Joe T. Jacobs & Co. have shown themselves philanthropists in preparing for the "heat wave" by laying in a fine stock of clothing, which they are selling at prices that will allow the stingiest man or those with the most limited means to dress respectably.

They sell on the one-price cash system. That the public appreciate this way of doing business is manifested by the large sales made annually at their establishment. Under this system a person has the same advantage in purchasing a single article as one buying a number, and the seller for the benefit of the credit system is saved, which saving goes for the benefit of the purchaser in the way of low prices.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK.—The following is the programme of Commencement week: SATURDAY, JUNE 20TH.

9 A. M.—Examination of candidates for admission.

SUNDAY, JUNE 21ST.

9 A. M.—Baccalaureate address in University Hall, by President Angell.

MONDAY, JUNE 22ND.

4 P. M.—Examination of candidates for admission. 8 P. M.—Concert, under the direction of the Senior class.

TUESDAY, JUNE 23RD.

10 A. M.—Class-day exercises. Oration by C. B. Burr. Poem by J. B. McMahon. 2 P. M.—Oration before the Alumni by Levi T. Griffin. Address by Rev. C. B. Burr. 8 P. M.—Commencement exercises. 8 P. M.—Alumni Supper at Hangar Hall. 8 P. M.—Reception by the Senior class.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24TH.

Thirty-first annual commencement.

8 A. M.—Business meeting of the Alumni in the chapel. 2 P. M.—The procession will form in front of the law building. 10 A. M.—Commencement exercises. 2 P. M.—Commencement dinner for the Alumni and guests of the University. 8 P. M.—President's Reception at the residence of President Angell.

Woman's Temperance Alliance.

The Woman's Temperance Alliance of Washtenaw County held its third regular meeting in the Presbyterian Church at Manchester, Thursday and Friday of last week.

The convention was called to order by the President, Mrs. S. Reed of Ann Arbor.

Opening exercises were conducted by Rev. Mr. Lewis of Detroit.

The address of welcome was read by Mrs. Love. Response in behalf of the officers and delegates, by Mrs. W. W. Smith.

Several subjects of interest were discussed, the principal ones being: What is our individual responsibility in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

County Items.

The Enterprise says: Jacob Kalamback's shoe-cork kicked the little fellow in the right eye, and inflicting a severe wound. Dr. Cates was summoned and gave such assistance that the lad is doing well. A son of Herman L. S. Lerch yesterday morning, while being carried to the rear of his store to be opened, throwing the entire contents upon his pants and boots. Damages: a new pair of pants, a new pair of boots, stockings and drawers, destroyed; burned feet and ankles, and the loss of seven pounds of acid.

Patrick Donnelly, of the firm of J. & P. Donnelly, died in this city last Friday. He had been in feeble health for several months past, but not until a few weeks previous to his death was he removed from his place of business or from among his many friends in the city. His funeral was attended Sunday, the procession was the largest ever witnessed in the city.

The residence of a maiden lady named Timmins, about a mile and a half from the village of Chelsea, was entered Wednesday morning by some one not yet positively known. In her efforts to drive the intruder away, Miss Timmins was terribly cut about the face and two of her teeth were knocked out. The perpetrator of the outrage is supposed to be a colored man who has been working in the neighborhood, as in his flight he left his hat, which resembles the one worn by him.

Agent Sharpless says that the services of the day watchman at the depot has not been dispensed with, that one is constantly on duty, and that it is impossible to keep the raft of boys from the station and off the trains.

The school of Miss C. Trussell, in Pittsfield, had a picnic at Whitman's Lake, Saturday. The party was not confined to the school, but was joined by a number of other persons, including the Sperry, Dewey, Hills, Wilsons, Mills, Monroes, Hurds, etc., numbering, in all, 50 persons, taking with them a good supply of eatables and refreshments.

The lake was a little rough, but did not prevent the party from freely indulging in boating, fishing, etc., and proved quite an event to many who rarely leave home for a day's indulgence in the boyish sports of childhood. All expressed themselves as having a grand time.

Capt. Revenaugh has received official reports from several military companies, of the State, to the effect that nearly all the invitations issued by the committee for the coming celebration, have been accepted.

Invitations have been issued to several societies and organizations, among which are the Grangers of Washtenaw County, who are expected to appear in full regalia. Every thing possible is being done by our citizens to render the celebration a success. In our issue of next week a full programme of the order of exercises for the day will appear.

SUMMER CLOTHING.—We have not had much warm weather this season, but are likely to have before the summer is over, and men and boys want to know where to find summer clothing that will suit and at prices that will please. Joe T. Jacobs & Co. have shown themselves philanthropists in preparing for the "heat wave" by laying in a fine stock of clothing, which they are selling at prices that will allow the stingiest man or those with the most limited means to dress respectably.

They sell on the one-price cash system. That the public appreciate this way of doing business is manifested by the large sales made annually at their establishment. Under this system a person has the same advantage in purchasing a single article as one buying a number, and the seller for the benefit of the credit system is saved, which saving goes for the benefit of the purchaser in the way of low prices.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK.—The following is the programme of Commencement week: SATURDAY, JUNE 20TH.

9 A. M.—Examination of candidates for admission.

SUNDAY, JUNE 21ST.

9 A. M.—Baccalaureate address in University Hall, by President Angell.

MONDAY, JUNE 22ND.

4 P. M.—Examination of candidates for admission. 8 P. M.—Concert, under the direction of the Senior class.

TUESDAY, JUNE 23RD.

10 A. M.—Class-day exercises. Oration by C. B. Burr. Poem by J. B. McMahon. 2 P. M.—Oration before the Alumni by Levi T. Griffin. Address by Rev. C. B. Burr. 8 P. M.—Commencement exercises. 8 P. M.—Alumni Supper at Hangar Hall. 8 P. M.—Reception by the Senior class.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 24TH.

Thirty-first annual commencement.

8 A. M.—Business meeting of the Alumni in the chapel. 2 P. M.—The procession will form in front of the law building. 10 A. M.—Commencement exercises. 2 P. M.—Commencement dinner for the Alumni and guests of the University. 8 P. M.—President's Reception at the residence of President Angell.

Woman's Temperance Alliance.

The Woman's Temperance Alliance of Washtenaw County held its third regular meeting in the Presbyterian Church at Manchester, Thursday and Friday of last week.

The convention was called to order by the President, Mrs. S. Reed of Ann Arbor.

Opening exercises were conducted by Rev. Mr. Lewis of Detroit.

The address of welcome was read by Mrs. Love. Response in behalf of the officers and delegates, by Mrs. W. W. Smith.

Several subjects of interest were discussed, the principal ones being: What is our individual responsibility in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

All felt the great need of work and prayer, of interesting the young people in the cause of temperance? As mothers what can we do for our boys that they may not become drunkards? The discussion of these questions was carried on with much interest by the members of the convention.

Book Notices.

From Jansen, McClurg & Co., 117 and 119 State street, Chicago, we have received the following:

THE AMERICAN EVANGELISTS, MOODY & SANKEY, By John Hall and George H. Stewart. New York: Dodd, Mead, Publishers. Price, $1.50.

This book of 450 pages, although it gives

