

The Michigan Argus. PUBLISHED EVERY FRIDAY MORNING. THE third story of the brick block corner of Main and Huron streets, ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN. EDITOR AND PUBLISHER. E. L. H. BOND. TERMS, $1.00 a year, or $1.50 in advance. RATES OF ADVERTISING. ... JOB PRINTING. ... BUSINESS DIRECTORY. ...

W. JACKSON, Dentist. Office corner of Main and Huron streets, over the store of J. H. Bond. ... J. H. BOND, Book and Stationery. ...

ATTORNEY AT LAW. ... EVERBODY SAYS THAT REVENAUGH. ...

A. H. WINSLOW, 32 East Huron Street. DEALER IN. ... THE ANN ARBOR SAVINGS BANK. ...

W. A. LOVEJOY, Tobacconist! FINE-CUT AND SMOKING TOBACCO. ...

BEBERBACH & SON, 12 South Main St. DRUGS, MEDICINES, CHEMICALS, DYE STUFFS, ARTISTS' & WAX FLOWER MATERIALS, PURE WINES AND LIQUORS.

VOLUME XXXII. ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN, FRIDAY, JANUARY 26, 1877. NUMBER 1619.

PUMPKIN PIE.
I've tried the best I've ever had. I've tried the best I've ever had. I've tried the best I've ever had. ...

"A PERFECT TREASURE."
One day Frank came home with a look of triumph. "I have a perfect treasure for you," he said. ...

How could you, Frank? I said, following her with sad eyes. "I have never heard you speak so warmly of temples since she has lived with us; the very mention of their name brings back the memory of Gerald's brother, and all that sad tragedy." ...

Yes! Poor Virginia! I said to myself. But once the loveliest little creature I ever knew. It is something of a mystery how it happened that she and Virginia Temple were inseparable. ...

That's right, tell me all, as I'm your husband that is to be, said the other, with a coarse laugh. "Mrs. Kent has splendid jewels, too. I just picked the lock to look at them. ...

That's right, tell me all, as I'm your husband that is to be, said the other, with a coarse laugh. "Mrs. Kent has splendid jewels, too. I just picked the lock to look at them. ...

That's right, tell me all, as I'm your husband that is to be, said the other, with a coarse laugh. "Mrs. Kent has splendid jewels, too. I just picked the lock to look at them. ...

much strain upon her already overburdened frame, and Frank and I were summoned by telegraph to her at Halifax, where she lay for days unconscious of her life. ...

Directly under the balcony, a voice said, softly: "What is wanted, ma'am? Can you open the front door for me?" ...

When she reached the stairs, she found by the sounds that the man had evidently gone into the silver-closet, and she saw a shadowy figure on the stairs. ...

Virginia, don't be terrified," he said; "it is my very self, no ghost. You are my hand, my eye, my ear, my blood, like your own dear, Fred. ...

That's right, tell me all, as I'm your husband that is to be, said the other, with a coarse laugh. "Mrs. Kent has splendid jewels, too. I just picked the lock to look at them. ...

That's right, tell me all, as I'm your husband that is to be, said the other, with a coarse laugh. "Mrs. Kent has splendid jewels, too. I just picked the lock to look at them. ...

That's right, tell me all, as I'm your husband that is to be, said the other, with a coarse laugh. "Mrs. Kent has splendid jewels, too. I just picked the lock to look at them. ...

his bravery on the night of the attempted burglary. Between Fred's boasting and my sly teasing, poor Frank will never be allowed to forget his mental agility in introducing me to such a "perfect treasure." ...

The following is the report of the committee of the Senate and House of Representatives upon the resolutions of the bodies to prepare and report such a message as may be best calculated to accomplish the lawful counting of the electoral votes and the best disposition of all questions connected therewith. ...

The matter then being a proper subject for legislation, the committee on the subject of the constitutionality of the proposed amendments to the constitution, report that the proposed amendments are unconstitutional. ...

The matter then being a proper subject for legislation, the committee on the subject of the constitutionality of the proposed amendments to the constitution, report that the proposed amendments are unconstitutional. ...

The matter then being a proper subject for legislation, the committee on the subject of the constitutionality of the proposed amendments to the constitution, report that the proposed amendments are unconstitutional. ...

The matter then being a proper subject for legislation, the committee on the subject of the constitutionality of the proposed amendments to the constitution, report that the proposed amendments are unconstitutional. ...

The matter then being a proper subject for legislation, the committee on the subject of the constitutionality of the proposed amendments to the constitution, report that the proposed amendments are unconstitutional. ...

in Congress assembled, that the Senate and House of Representatives shall meet in the hall of the House of Representatives at the hour of 10 o'clock on the first Thursday in February, A. D. 1877, and the President of the Senate shall be the presiding officer. ...

The matter then being a proper subject for legislation, the committee on the subject of the constitutionality of the proposed amendments to the constitution, report that the proposed amendments are unconstitutional. ...

The matter then being a proper subject for legislation, the committee on the subject of the constitutionality of the proposed amendments to the constitution, report that the proposed amendments are unconstitutional. ...

The matter then being a proper subject for legislation, the committee on the subject of the constitutionality of the proposed amendments to the constitution, report that the proposed amendments are unconstitutional. ...

The matter then being a proper subject for legislation, the committee on the subject of the constitutionality of the proposed amendments to the constitution, report that the proposed amendments are unconstitutional. ...

The matter then being a proper subject for legislation, the committee on the subject of the constitutionality of the proposed amendments to the constitution, report that the proposed amendments are unconstitutional. ...

The matter then being a proper subject for legislation, the committee on the subject of the constitutionality of the proposed amendments to the constitution, report that the proposed amendments are unconstitutional. ...

in the manner hereinbefore provided, to direct a recess of such house not beyond the next day. ...

The matter then being a proper subject for legislation, the committee on the subject of the constitutionality of the proposed amendments to the constitution, report that the proposed amendments are unconstitutional. ...

The matter then being a proper subject for legislation, the committee on the subject of the constitutionality of the proposed amendments to the constitution, report that the proposed amendments are unconstitutional. ...

The matter then being a proper subject for legislation, the committee on the subject of the constitutionality of the proposed amendments to the constitution, report that the proposed amendments are unconstitutional. ...

The matter then being a proper subject for legislation, the committee on the subject of the constitutionality of the proposed amendments to the constitution, report that the proposed amendments are unconstitutional. ...

The matter then being a proper subject for legislation, the committee on the subject of the constitutionality of the proposed amendments to the constitution, report that the proposed amendments are unconstitutional. ...

The matter then being a proper subject for legislation, the committee on the subject of the constitutionality of the proposed amendments to the constitution, report that the proposed amendments are unconstitutional. ...

genuine reform in civil service has thus been realized. Missouri—Gov. Phelps pays a high compliment to the common-school system of Missouri, alluding to the mineral resources of the State, and urges the strictest economy in every branch of the State government. ...

AGRICULTURAL AND DOMESTIC. Around the Farm. As a reason why American farmers ought to be contented, the Agriculturalist gives this account of the farmer in England: "He does not own his land, except in very rare instances, and is obliged not only to pay a yearly rental of $20 to $25 per acre, but to keep the land in good condition, is forced to employ a working capital of at least $50 an acre, to be expended in artificial fertilizers." ...

Governors' Messages. Finance of the State—Executive Recommendations, Etc. The aspect of State Government, judging from the tenor of Governors' messages—some dozen of which are before us—is exceedingly bright. The Western States have almost universally paid up their State debts, or made them permanent and called them school funds. ...

Arkansas—Gov. Garland reports the debt of Arkansas as $17,000,000. He recommends the inauguration of an immigration bureau, the aiding of the public schools and the adoption of a system of railroad taxation. ...

Wisconsin—Gov. Lindquist's message shows the entire treasury receipts for the fiscal year ending September, 1876, $1,976,074; disbursements during the same period, $1,600,000. ...

Massachusetts—Gov. Rice says the reduction of the State debt from the rate of $8,000,000, and that the debt is increased by special legislative grants, a State debt of $1,400,000 will be sufficient to meet all present needs. ...

Ohio—From Gov. Hayes' summary of the financial condition of Ohio it appears that while the indebtedness of the State has been reduced by nearly $1,500,000 during the past year, the indebtedness of the cities and incorporated villages has been increased by more than $10,000,000. ...

CHILDEAN LIMENTINE.—One drachm sugar of lead, two drachms vitriol; powder and add four ounces of water; shake well before using; the homoclock oil, the soda, and the alum; it is not for application on broken chills. ...

IMPORTANT ADVICE.—Never leave clothes near the fireplace to dry; nor smoke or read in bed by candle or lamp light; nor put kindling wood to dry on the top of the stove; nor take any kind of sugar; nor keep oil or burning fluid in any kind of rooms where there is a fire. ...

DOUGHERTS.—Take one pint of sour cream, two eggs, two cups of white sugar, one teaspoonful of soda; season to taste. If the cream is not sour add a teaspoonful of cream tartar. ...

NEURALGIA AND RHEUMATISM.—Two tablespoonfuls each of beef's gall, halibut, spirits of turpentine, homoclock oil, the soda, and the alum; it is not for application on broken chills. ...

CHILDEAN LIMENTINE.—One drachm sugar of lead, two drachms vitriol; powder and add four ounces of water; shake well before using; the homoclock oil, the soda, and the alum; it is not for application on broken chills. ...

IMPORTANT ADVICE.—Never leave clothes near the fireplace to dry; nor smoke or read in bed by candle or lamp light; nor put kindling wood to dry on the top of the stove; nor take any kind of sugar; nor keep oil or burning fluid in any kind of rooms where there is a fire. ...

DOUGHERTS.—Take one pint of sour cream, two eggs, two cups of white sugar, one teaspoonful of soda; season to taste. If the cream is not sour add a teaspoonful of cream tartar. ...

