

THE HOUSE is wrestling with the bill repealing the Resumption act of 1875. A vote is to be taken next Tuesday.

GOV. WILLIAMS, of Indiana, has appointed Hon. Daniel W. Voorhees, of Terre Haute, to succeed Senator Morton.

IN THE HOUSE on Monday Mr. Phillips, of Kansas, introduced a bill to establish postal savings banks.

ACCORDING to the very positive statement of a correspondent of the Mason News the financial condition of the Capitol city is anything but flattering.

IN THE death of Hon. Oliver P. Morton, which occurred at 5:30 p. m., Nov. 1, the Senate of the United States lost one of its oldest and most influential members.

WHEN Solomon wrote "Wine is a mocker, strong drink is raging," did he conceive the idea that after some thousands of years "strong drink" would be deified and prayer offered to it?

THE nomination of Gen. Harlan to be Associate Justice of the Supreme Court still hangs fire in the Senate.

THE removal of the bloody shirt took away from the machine managers one of the most potent means of exciting the passions and emotions by which vast numbers of men had for many previous years been led at elections.

IT is evident that the President has reached the parting of the ways and he must definitely decide whether he is to walk with the Republicans or the Democrats.

THE New York Tribune says: "Communism carried Ohio." Bosh! West, the only communist running for office in Ohio, was the worst beaten man on any ticket.

THE President's so-called Southern policy is not irrevocable. It is based conditionally upon the respect paid in the South to the rights of all classes of the people.

LET the Michigan delegation recommend Zach. Chandler for something; Illinois commend John Logan; New Jersey, Robeson; Ohio—but the President takes care of Ohio and no mistake.

THE ELECTIONS.

Neither party gained such overwhelming victories in Tuesday's elections as to stimulate either undue pride or cussedness. We summarize results:

NEW YORK.—Democratic State ticket has about 15,000 majority. Legislature Republican in both branches by a required majority.

NEW JERSEY.—Gen. McClellan elected Governor by 12,500 majority. Both branches of the Legislature Democratic.

PENNSYLVANIA.—Democrats elect State Treasurer, but Republicans claim to have saved the Supreme Judge.

MARYLAND, MISSISSIPPI, and VIRGINIA, Democratic—the latter two in a sort of jug-handle fashion. Figures unnecessary.

KANSAS, NEBRASKA, MINNESOTA, and WISCONSIN, Republican. Connecticut elects a Republican Legislature, by about last year's majority.

OUR disappointed, disgusted, depressed friend of the Ypsilanti Commercial disturbs his readers with this horrible undrum: "We ask any sensible, thinking man, when a Republican President has to adopt Democratic politics, what's the use of such party any longer?"

THE politico-religious editor of the Post and Tribune overloADED his stomach on Friday night last, had a terrible night mare in consequence, and the result was a labored article in Sunday morning's edition, holding up to the public gaze several Democratic candidates for School Inspector, who had committed the unpardonable sin of being born and bred Catholics.

THE Democratic of Detroit swept the board nearly clean on Tuesday, electing every city candidate except the candidate for Treasurer, by majorities ranging from 289 to 2,073—the latter figures being the majority of City Attorney Maybury.

THE nomination of Gen. Harlan to be Associate Justice of the Supreme Court still hangs fire in the Senate; also the nomination of John Baxter to be Judge of this circuit, vice Emmons deceased; also that of John Welsh to be Minister to England; and also the nominations for the New York Custom House and port. Conkling is hugging the latter, and not exactly in love it is suspected.

POLITICAL CLIPPINGS.

THE removal of the bloody shirt took away from the machine managers one of the most potent means of exciting the passions and emotions by which vast numbers of men had for many previous years been led at elections.

will be universally admitted. It is true that the situation is not likely to be the same again. The result of the election may never depend upon a single electoral vote. Congress may not be divided against itself upon the question.

A LESSON LEARNED.

When I despondent sank beneath the press of care and toil, Her love and hopefulness cheered and sustained; but more she loved her Lord,

That calling her spirit to a higher sphere, Leaving me lonely and bereaved here. "Bereaved!" "bereaved!" how hard it was! Its depth of meaning which I now discern! Stricken of God; but not disconsolate: Lone and cast down but still not desolate: While thus we mourn shall we not understand The lesson of our Teacher when His hand Takes earthily joys away? Joys only lent To cheer our spirits in their banishment: Take them away that we may learn to love Earth's good things thus less; but more the things above.
