

The Michigan Argus.

Published every Friday morning... JOHN N. BAILEY, EDITOR AND PUBLISHER.

Subscription rates: $2.00 a year, or $1.50 in advance.

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

Table with columns for advertising rates: 1st, 2nd, 3rd, 4th, 5th, 6th, 7th, 8th, 9th, 10th, 11th, 12th.

JOB PRINTING.

Printed, Posters, Handbills, Circulars, Cards, Labels, Bills, Heads and other business printing.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

- W. TAYLOR, ATTORNEY AT LAW. W. M. TAYLOR, ATTORNEY AT LAW. W. M. TAYLOR, ATTORNEY AT LAW.

ATTORNEYS AT LAW.

W. M. TAYLOR, ATTORNEY AT LAW. W. M. TAYLOR, ATTORNEY AT LAW.

ATTORNEY AT LAW.

W. M. TAYLOR, ATTORNEY AT LAW. W. M. TAYLOR, ATTORNEY AT LAW.

E. C. FREER.

Dealer in Real Estate and Insurance Agent.

J. H. NICKELS.

Dealer in Real Estate and Insurance Agent.

FRESH AND SALT MEATS.

Hams, Sausages, Lard, etc.

EVERY BODY SAYS THAT

S. B. REVENAUGH is the best Photographer of Ann Arbor.

THE ANN ARBOR SAVINGS BANK.

ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN. Capital paid in $50,000.00.

EMANUEL MANN.

Druggist and Pharmacist.

PURE DRUGS.

MEDICINES, CHEMICALS, CHOICE PERFUMES.

EBERBACH & SON.

Druggists and Pharmacists.

PURE WINES AND LIQUORS.

Special attention paid to the furnishing of Physicians, Chemists, Schools, etc.

Memories.

A fragrant scent of April rain... A vision sweet of love and peace... A vision sweet of love and peace.

Trifles.

A set speech—One in type. Staple articles—Padlocks. Well-wishers—Thirsty travellers.

FOR THE CHILDREN.

The Three Wishes. One evening in winter, a man and his wife seated by their fire.

Culture of Tea.

The great tea districts of China are situated among the mountains and hills several hundred miles from the coast.

The Duty and Danger of the Democrats.

The people of this country in general and the Democrats of this country in particular owe a great debt of gratitude to the public men who, like Senator Bayard, have announced their determination to vote against appropriations for the army.

Close of the Afghan War.

One of Lord Roberts' military operations in South Africa are still dragging on, peace has been dictated in Afghanistan.

An Elephant's Gratitude.

The Birmingham Gazette says that among the animals belonging to a menagerie that visited Tenbury recently is a fine female elephant named "Lizzie."

An Imperial Relic.

The giraffe presented as a wedding gift to the Empress Marie Louise by Napoleon, and bequeathed by the Empress in 1847 to the late Countess of Westmoreland, is to be sold under the hammer in the market for gold.

Has an Ax to Grind.

When I was a little boy, I remember, one cold winter morning, walking with my smiling man, with an ax on his shoulder.

America Ahead.

The greatest cataract in the world is the Falls of Niagara, where the waters of the great river descend over a river three-fourths of a mile in width.

March of Education.

"Pall Mall, Globe, Star," said the Old Gentleman: "Any news, my boy?"

What beats a good wife?

What beats a good wife? A bad husband. "Well, yes; you can hardly expect me to sit on a red sofa in a magenta dress; and I should have thought that it was more economical to have a dress to suit the room than to have the room altered to suit the dress.

longs to the same humanity with my divine Algeon!

"He looks tired and thirsty," said gentle-hearted Olive. "I've a great mind to offer him a cool drink."

Trifles.

A set speech—One in type. Staple articles—Padlocks. Well-wishers—Thirsty travellers.

FOR THE CHILDREN.

The Three Wishes. One evening in winter, a man and his wife seated by their fire.

Culture of Tea.

The great tea districts of China are situated among the mountains and hills several hundred miles from the coast.

The Duty and Danger of the Democrats.

The people of this country in general and the Democrats of this country in particular owe a great debt of gratitude to the public men who, like Senator Bayard, have announced their determination to vote against appropriations for the army.

Close of the Afghan War.

One of Lord Roberts' military operations in South Africa are still dragging on, peace has been dictated in Afghanistan.

An Elephant's Gratitude.

The Birmingham Gazette says that among the animals belonging to a menagerie that visited Tenbury recently is a fine female elephant named "Lizzie."

An Imperial Relic.

The giraffe presented as a wedding gift to the Empress Marie Louise by Napoleon, and bequeathed by the Empress in 1847 to the late Countess of Westmoreland, is to be sold under the hammer in the market for gold.

Has an Ax to Grind.

When I was a little boy, I remember, one cold winter morning, walking with my smiling man, with an ax on his shoulder.

America Ahead.

The greatest cataract in the world is the Falls of Niagara, where the waters of the great river descend over a river three-fourths of a mile in width.

March of Education.

"Pall Mall, Globe, Star," said the Old Gentleman: "Any news, my boy?"

What beats a good wife?

What beats a good wife? A bad husband. "Well, yes; you can hardly expect me to sit on a red sofa in a magenta dress; and I should have thought that it was more economical to have a dress to suit the room than to have the room altered to suit the dress.

longs to the same humanity with my divine Algeon!

"He looks tired and thirsty," said gentle-hearted Olive. "I've a great mind to offer him a cool drink."

Trifles.

A set speech—One in type. Staple articles—Padlocks. Well-wishers—Thirsty travellers.

FOR THE CHILDREN.

The Three Wishes. One evening in winter, a man and his wife seated by their fire.

Culture of Tea.

The great tea districts of China are situated among the mountains and hills several hundred miles from the coast.

The Duty and Danger of the Democrats.

The people of this country in general and the Democrats of this country in particular owe a great debt of gratitude to the public men who, like Senator Bayard, have announced their determination to vote against appropriations for the army.

Close of the Afghan War.

One of Lord Roberts' military operations in South Africa are still dragging on, peace has been dictated in Afghanistan.

An Elephant's Gratitude.

The Birmingham Gazette says that among the animals belonging to a menagerie that visited Tenbury recently is a fine female elephant named "Lizzie."

An Imperial Relic.

The giraffe presented as a wedding gift to the Empress Marie Louise by Napoleon, and bequeathed by the Empress in 1847 to the late Countess of Westmoreland, is to be sold under the hammer in the market for gold.

Has an Ax to Grind.

When I was a little boy, I remember, one cold winter morning, walking with my smiling man, with an ax on his shoulder.

America Ahead.

The greatest cataract in the world is the Falls of Niagara, where the waters of the great river descend over a river three-fourths of a mile in width.

March of Education.

"Pall Mall, Globe, Star," said the Old Gentleman: "Any news, my boy?"

What beats a good wife?

What beats a good wife? A bad husband. "Well, yes; you can hardly expect me to sit on a red sofa in a magenta dress; and I should have thought that it was more economical to have a dress to suit the room than to have the room altered to suit the dress.

longs to the same humanity with my divine Algeon!

"He looks tired and thirsty," said gentle-hearted Olive. "I've a great mind to offer him a cool drink."

Trifles.

A set speech—One in type. Staple articles—Padlocks. Well-wishers—Thirsty travellers.

FOR THE CHILDREN.

The Three Wishes. One evening in winter, a man and his wife seated by their fire.

Culture of Tea.

The great tea districts of China are situated among the mountains and hills several hundred miles from the coast.

The Duty and Danger of the Democrats.

The people of this country in general and the Democrats of this country in particular owe a great debt of gratitude to the public men who, like Senator Bayard, have announced their determination to vote against appropriations for the army.

Close of the Afghan War.

One of Lord Roberts' military operations in South Africa are still dragging on, peace has been dictated in Afghanistan.

An Elephant's Gratitude.

The Birmingham Gazette says that among the animals belonging to a menagerie that visited Tenbury recently is a fine female elephant named "Lizzie."

An Imperial Relic.

The giraffe presented as a wedding gift to the Empress Marie Louise by Napoleon, and bequeathed by the Empress in 1847 to the late Countess of Westmoreland, is to be sold under the hammer in the market for gold.

Has an Ax to Grind.

When I was a little boy, I remember, one cold winter morning, walking with my smiling man, with an ax on his shoulder.

America Ahead.

The greatest cataract in the world is the Falls of Niagara, where the waters of the great river descend over a river three-fourths of a mile in width.

March of Education.

"Pall Mall, Globe, Star," said the Old Gentleman: "Any news, my boy?"

What beats a good wife?

What beats a good wife? A bad husband. "Well, yes; you can hardly expect me to sit on a red sofa in a magenta dress; and I should have thought that it was more economical to have a dress to suit the room than to have the room altered to suit the dress.

longs to the same humanity with my divine Algeon!

"He looks tired and thirsty," said gentle-hearted Olive. "I've a great mind to offer him a cool drink."

Trifles.

A set speech—One in type. Staple articles—Padlocks. Well-wishers—Thirsty travellers.

FOR THE CHILDREN.

The Three Wishes. One evening in winter, a man and his wife seated by their fire.

Culture of Tea.

The great tea districts of China are situated among the mountains and hills several hundred miles from the coast.

The Duty and Danger of the Democrats.

The people of this country in general and the Democrats of this country in particular owe a great debt of gratitude to the public men who, like Senator Bayard, have announced their determination to vote against appropriations for the army.

Close of the Afghan War.

One of Lord Roberts' military operations in South Africa are still dragging on, peace has been dictated in Afghanistan.

An Elephant's Gratitude.

The Birmingham Gazette says that among the animals belonging to a menagerie that visited Tenbury recently is a fine female elephant named "Lizzie."

An Imperial Relic.

The giraffe presented as a wedding gift to the Empress Marie Louise by Napoleon, and bequeathed by the Empress in 1847 to the late Countess of Westmoreland, is to be sold under the hammer in the market for gold.

Has an Ax to Grind.

When I was a little boy, I remember, one cold winter morning, walking with my smiling man, with an ax on his shoulder.

America Ahead.

The greatest cataract in the world is the Falls of Niagara, where the waters of the great river descend over a river three-fourths of a mile in width.

March of Education.

"Pall Mall, Globe, Star," said the Old Gentleman: "Any news, my boy?"

What beats a good wife?

What beats a good wife? A bad husband. "Well, yes; you can hardly expect me to sit on a red sofa in a magenta dress; and I should have thought that it was more economical to have a dress to suit the room than to have the room altered to suit the dress.

longs to the same humanity with my divine Algeon!

"He looks tired and thirsty," said gentle-hearted Olive. "I've a great mind to offer him a cool drink."

Trifles.

A set speech—One in type. Staple articles—Padlocks. Well-wishers—Thirsty travellers.

FOR THE CHILDREN.

The Three Wishes. One evening in winter, a man and his wife seated by their fire.

Culture of Tea.

The great tea districts of China are situated among the mountains and hills several hundred miles from the coast.

The Duty and Danger of the Democrats.

The people of this country in general and the Democrats of this country in particular owe a great debt of gratitude to the public men who, like Senator Bayard, have announced their determination to vote against appropriations for the army.

Close of the Afghan War.

One of Lord Roberts' military operations in South Africa are still dragging on, peace has been dictated in Afghanistan.

An Elephant's Gratitude.

The Birmingham Gazette says that among the animals belonging to a menagerie that visited Tenbury recently is a fine female elephant named "Lizzie."

An Imperial Relic.

The giraffe presented as a wedding gift to the Empress Marie Louise by Napoleon, and bequeathed by the Empress in 1847 to the late Countess of Westmoreland, is to be sold under the hammer in the market for gold.

Has an Ax to Grind.

When I was a little boy, I remember, one cold winter morning, walking with my smiling man, with an ax on his shoulder.

America Ahead.

The greatest cataract in the world is the Falls of Niagara, where the waters of the great river descend over a river three-fourths of a mile in width.

March of Education.

"Pall Mall, Globe, Star," said the Old Gentleman: "Any news, my boy?"

What beats a good wife?

What beats a good wife? A bad husband. "Well, yes; you can hardly expect me to sit on a red sofa in a magenta dress; and I should have thought that it was more economical to have a dress to suit the room than to have the room altered to suit the dress.

longs to the same humanity with my divine Algeon!

"He looks tired and thirsty," said gentle-hearted Olive. "I've a great mind to offer him a cool drink."

Trifles.

A set speech—One in type. Staple articles—Padlocks. Well-wishers—Thirsty travellers.

FOR THE CHILDREN.

The Three Wishes. One evening in winter, a man and his wife seated by their fire.

Culture of Tea.

The great tea districts of China are situated among the mountains and hills several hundred miles from the coast.

The Duty and Danger of the Democrats.

The people of this country in general and the Democrats of this country in particular owe a great debt of gratitude to the public men who, like Senator Bayard, have announced their determination to vote against appropriations for the army.

Close of the Afghan War.

One of Lord Roberts' military operations in South Africa are still dragging on, peace has been dictated in Afghanistan.

An Elephant's Gratitude.

The Birmingham Gazette says that among the animals belonging to a menagerie that visited Tenbury recently is a fine female elephant named "Lizzie."

An Imperial Relic.

The giraffe presented as a wedding gift to the Empress Marie Louise by Napoleon, and bequeathed by the Empress in 1847 to the late Countess of Westmoreland, is to be sold under the hammer in the market for gold.

Has an Ax to Grind.

When I was a little boy, I remember, one cold winter morning, walking with my smiling man, with an ax on his shoulder.

America Ahead.

The greatest cataract in the world is the Falls of Niagara, where the waters of the great river descend over a river three-fourths of a mile in width.

March of Education.

"Pall Mall, Globe, Star," said the Old Gentleman: "Any news, my boy?"

What beats a good wife?

What beats a good wife? A bad husband. "Well, yes; you can hardly expect me to sit on a red sofa in a magenta dress; and I should have thought that it was more economical to have a dress to suit the room than to have the room altered to suit the dress.

Rutherford B. Hayes.

When the Hayes Administration started on its career its fraudulent chief seemed to feel it incumbent on him to conciliate public opinion, which had been forfeited by his elevation.

At last it has been discovered "How to keep a boy on the farm." The plan is to kill him and bury him six feet deep in the barnyard. This rule does not apply in Ohio, however, where body-snatching makes it extremely doubtful where the boy would be a week after burial.—Norristown Herald.

