

City.
—Friday evening's Reform Club entertainment, under auspices of Mrs. Tyler and Daddley brought $83 into the treasury.
—Michael Hardigan a former Cheltenham, came from Ypsilanti on Tuesday to see his mother, the guest of the county fifteen days. Drunk.
—Two cases were pending in the Washtenaw Circuit Court against Ransom Saulsbury, otherwise known as "Boss" Saulsbury, shot on Saturday at Toledo by sergeant Nohl. Saulsbury and Thomas J. Crowell were arrested over a year ago for victimizing a New York farmer on a Michigan Central train near Ann Arbor. They were subsequently released on bail and their cases several times postponed.
—At a meeting of the Pomological society on Saturday, Secretary Ganzhorn read an interesting paper on the culture of fruit. A committee composed of S. W. Dor, Manchester; Edward King, Ypsilanti; J. Graham, J. Toms and Martin Clark, Ann Arbor, was appointed to make arrangements for the representation of the society and county in fruits and flowers at the State Fair, the committee to make the selection.
—The Washtenaw County Fair will be held at Ann Arbor, September 30, October 1, 2 and 3. The Executive Committee are working hard to make the fair one of the most successful in the history of the county. Edward Treadwell has been appointed Superintendent; M. Fleming, Marshal; Sampson Parker, C. H. Richmond, J. S. Henderson, John J. Robinson, George A. Peters, Business committee; Col. H. S. Dean, E. B. Pond, L. C. Risdon, Committee on Reception of Strangers.
—A young girl named Ellen Casey, while returning home Sunday night, was knocked down by a mudlark on North Fourth street. Her screams frightened him so that he fled. The girl succeeded in reaching the gate of her residence, only a short distance, when she fainted, and was carried into the house, and during the night and ensuing day she has gone into repeated spasms and her nerves seem entirely unstrung. She says the man followed her down Huron street and Fourth. On the latter street she stopped to let him pass, when he hit her on the cheek. The man, she says, was a negro, and she thinks she could recognize him if she should see him again.
—The annual meeting of the Washtenaw county pioneer society will be held in the opera house, on Wednesday next. The following persons have been appointed as committee on supplies: R. A. Beal, J. J. Parshel, John S. Nowland, R. Waterman, David DePuy, Nelson Booth, Charles Almandinger, James H. Stevens, George Sinton, George Rowland, David P. Appleton, J. W. Wing, A. The County.
—There are nearly sixty members of Mutual Benefit Association in Ypsilanti.
—Wm. Sherwood has the contract to build the East Manchester bridge for $189.
—G. H. Cobb and E. A. Houser have purchased the grocery store of Shaw & Kyrle of Saline.
—District Grange picnic at North Lake, on Saturday next. Thos. F. Moore will do the stage talking.
—The Sabbath school of the M. E. Church of Ypsilanti enjoy a basket picnic on the fair grounds to-day.
—Mr. L. E. Cole of Norwell is about to become a resident of Manchester, and will occupy the Baptist parsonage for a time.
—Roland Fletcher of Ypsilanti town sold B. Spencer thirty-one choice cattle, that brought him the snug sum of $1,766.25.
—Owners of orchards near Ypsilanti are compelled to employ night watchmen in order to keep off juvenile and adult thieves.
—The Baptists of Ypsilanti have decided to postpone until the first of January all action in regard to calling a new pastor.
—Pelagoues-elect as well as those not so fortunate meet township superintendent of schools of Scio to-day, in Dexter for examination.
—In default of payment of tax by James West of Ypsilanti, Sheriff Case closed his saloon last week. West saw the Sheriff later and paid.
—Harry Armstrong of Grand Haven is temporarily tutoring the Dexter band, which proposes to give him a trial before entering upon a permanent engagement.
—D. M. Doyle, tobaccoist in Ypsilanti, lost about $45 worth of unstamped cigars by a burglar who transomed his way into and departed through the rear door left unbolts.
—The Union school building of Ypsilanti will be open for public inspection this afternoon. School election takes place on Monday on which day the school year will begin.
—Manchester's town board appointed C. F. Field, superintendent of schools, to succeed C. P. McMahon, removed to Ludington. Mr. F. has had experience in the duties of the office.
—Burglars entered Croakins' store in Dexter, on Wednesday night of last week by cutting a pane of glass in a rear window. Nothing missing except silk handkerchiefs and cheese.
—Manchester and Franklin Farmers' club picnic is set down for Saturday, in Captain Davis's grove. Charles Richmond, Esq. of this city, and other speakers are expected to speak.
—J. Wilson of 79 Cedar Street, New York, writes to the Farmers' Bank of Sharon he has a $3 bill in issue of that bank of date Feb. 23, 1897, and wants to know if he shall collect through express, bank at Manchester, or by mail.
—In the item in last week's ARGUS, speaking of a surgical operation upon the late Mr. Clements of Lima, by Dr. Maclean, credit should have been given to Dr. Breakey, who performed three operations, Dr. Maclean assisting at one only.
—The boot and shoe firm of Lyons & Kurts, that moved its business to Ypsilanti, occupies three floors in the Norris block near the depot. Production at present is 50 pairs per day, and within a year probably will be 200. Their pay roll is $70.
—Wengel Dusek, a Bohemian over 70 years of age, was waylaid and assaulted in the city of Ypsilanti on Friday night by two unknown negroes. Despairing of life at first, he is now on the road to recovery. The attack on this inoffensive old man is believed to have been inspired by certain ones with whom he had a difficulty.
—Mr. Clements of Lima, whose death was noticed in last week's ARGUS, was a native of Ontario Co., N. Y., migrating to this county in 1825, and located with his parents on the farm where he died. For over forty years he was an active and earnest Christian, an aggressive advocate of good morals and himself an example of precepts taught.
—The fortieth annual conference of the clergymen of the African M. E. churches of Indiana and Michigan assembled in Ypsilanti last week. Sunday was an interesting day, two open air meetings being largely attended, and in the evening colored ministers held services in white and colored churches. Appointments were made on Wednesday.
—Mr. Jacob Grob, brewer, received a call from a deputy sheriff last Monday, the object of officer's visit being collection of the liquor tax which Jacob should have paid some time ago. The manufacturer of lager declared that he had no money and consequently could not "pay up." The officer, in accordance with instructions, took a stroll about the premises to see what he could levy upon. In the barn he found a span of horses which he quietly led out. This was more than Jacob had counted upon. Of course he could not part with his team, so he called upon one of his neighbors, who kindly furnished the officer with security for the payment of the tax on Thursday, whereupon the horses were released.—Ypsilanti Commercial.
—The coroner's jury in the Minnie Millsaps case at an adjourned meeting on Tuesday evening rendered a verdict that the deceased came to her death from cause unknown to the jury.—Every effort has been made to get possession of evidence which would lead to a solution of the mystery, but they have been unable to get at any facts, although there has been many rumors afloat. Esquire Goodyear took the stomach to Ann Arbor to have it analyzed, but the professors of the University declined to touch it unless he or some responsible person would agree to pay them for their labor—$50 to $75, which he did not feel like doing. The professors declined to do the work for the county, or to do the work and look to the county for their pay.—Manchester Enterprise.
Schools commenced Monday. S. C. Andrews has the largest and cheapest stock of new and second-hand school books in the city, at 13 Huron street.

Bridgewater.
RIVER R. 18TH, Aug. 25.
—Ar. H. Palmer is practicing telegraphy at the depot in Manchester.
—William H. Bunker leaves soon for St. Johns, Mich., where he has purchased a farm.
—A fall term of school has lately opened in the school house near the town hall.
—Mrs. A. S. Lowery of near Brooklyn, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Palmer.
—Van Gieson Brothers sold their wool last week to a Tecumseh buyer for 22 cents—unwashed.
—Mr. George Lazell, aged 83, returned from a visit to Moravia and Niles, Cayuga Co., N. Y. He made the trip alone.
—Henry R. Palmer expects to leave soon for a visit to his brother, Albert F. superintendent of schools for Woodson County, Kansas.
—J. H. Perry of this town has gone, and his brother Charles will soon go, with families of both to near Lincoln, Nebraska to make a future home.
—One of our most elderly citizens, Thomas Pykett, remarkably active for one of 93 years of age, was one of the happiest of the pioneers of Saturday.—Mr. P. has been a fellow townsman nearly 53 years.
—On Wednesday of last week on the Detroit and Hillsdale railroad just west of Brooklyn, sparks from a locomotive burned the upper deck of a car loaded with oil. Before the fire reached the combustible stuff the fireman discovered the danger and extinguished it.
—At the picnic ground on Saturday Mr. Horace Case of Manchester hitched his horse to a tree where it was afterward disclosed a humble bee's nest was located. Becoming restive from continual stings the animal loosed himself, ran and broke the harness in many places besides damaging the buggy before arrest.
Sharon.
SHARON, Aug. 18.
The seventh annual picnic of the farmers of Sharon was held in the grove of D. G. Rose on the 14th instant. The attendance was good though not quite so large as some previous years, owing somewhat to the regatta at Hillsdale and an excursion from Grass Lake. The speech by Rev. Augustus Gillett was pronounced excellent. Short speeches by Rev. McIlwain and Gay and Capt. E. P. Allen followed, from which it was inferred that Capt. Allen is not an early riser. Every thing passed off quietly and pleasantly to all, with the exception of two young ladies from Manchester Misses Mattie Vreeland and Beekie Lohzell who had the misfortune to have their buggy hit the gate when driving through thereby throwing them out and breaking the buggy; the young ladies were not hurt. The officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President—Col. J. H. Fellows. Vice President—W. M. Bowers. Secretary—C. M. Fellows. Treasurer—D. G. Rose. Executive Committee—J. J. Robinson, S. Cushman, W. Campbell and C. Rowe. Uno.
The rush still continues and crowds come from all directions to secure the great bargains that are offered at Mack & Schmid's and which have created an excitement unparalleled in the annals of the dry goods trade in this city.

KIMBALL.—In Ypsilanti, on the 23d inst., Elizabeth Kimball, wife of John Kimball, aged 76 years. She was a native of New York, and had resided in this city for many years. Her death was the result of a long illness, and she passed her last days in a peaceful manner. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death is a great loss to her family.
In Memoriam.
The subject of this sketch Mrs. Eliza A. Johnson who suddenly passed away on the 18th inst., was in no sense an ordinary woman. She was born in Jerseyville Oct. 3d, 1818 the daughter of Wm. Lyman and Mary Johnson, the oldest and most respected citizens of that part of the Province. Here she passed her youth, and received her education at the common schools of her native village but finished her studies at the Normal school of Toronto Ont., where she was distinguished for her personal beauty and scholarly attainments, whilst her tenderly kind disposition endeared her to teachers and classmates. She was married in 1838 to Mr. Geo. Johnson whose home was at Saline. Here she was a brand has lived up to the time of her decease and has suffered much from ill-health during all these last years, being never free from languor and weakness if not in actual pain. Mrs. Johnson's religious sympathies were not narrow or limited to one form of worship; she saw the good in every religion, holding a sincere conviction that all men are brothers and sisters, and that the only way to heaven is through the love of God and the love of our fellow men. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death is a great loss to her family. She was a native of New York, and had resided in this city for many years. Her death was the result of a long illness, and she passed her last days in a peaceful manner. She was a devoted wife and mother, and her death is a great loss to her family.
