

HELP ME NIKKI

hello I'm Katie

I am 6 years old. I am in kindergarten at Treetop elementary school. My best friend is Nikki. She is in the same class as me. we have playdates almost everyday. one day Nikki and I were playing hide-and-seek in her backyard and some really big incidents happened.

Take a seat and let me tell you all about it.

"Hi Nikki!" I said one day as I was arriving at her house.

"what's up Katie?" Said Nikki as her dog barked at me as if he was trying to say, "Hello, did you forget about me? I'm down here!" we ran up to her front door and to her room. "what should we do?" I asked.

Nikky walked to her drawer and pulled out a piece of paper and showed it to me. It was a list with hopscotch, dolls, snacks and hide-and-seek.

"Let's go outside to start playing hopscotch Katie!" Nikki yelled. I followed her to the garage. She got her chalk, drew the board, and got 2 rocks

"You go first" I insisted.

"No you go 1st Katie!"

So I picked up a rock and threw it to the ground. We played with dolls and had snacks.

Now, the real trouble begins.

"lets go play hide-and-seeek." I said kind of loudly.

"okay let's go!" Nikky Chanted.

we ran to her backyard she has a pool, swing set, a treehouse and woods. All of a sudden a skunk ran out of the woods. At first we thought it was a rabbit but after a minute it was still there so I walked towards it and it turned around. I realized it was a skunk and ran.

"Let's start you hide first " said Nikky.

Nikky ran to the treehouse and started counting. I hid under the swingset . After Nikky finished counting she looked for me by the pool. She only found me because I sneezed

"Katie," Nikki yelled "come out, come out wherever you are! I know where you're hiding."

It actually looked like she did. She was getting closer closer closer until I could have reached out and touched her. Then she turned around and smiled at me kinda of weird and hit me in the arm!

"My turn!" Nikki yelled

"How high should I count?"

"Count to 345!" Nikki said with a laugh.

"Nikki, I'm counting to 30" I said.

"Fine" Nikki said as she stomped away to hide.

I counted to 30. Every Time I got to 30 she made me count to 30 again and again.

She kept jumping up when she thought I wasn't looking but once I was. So I ran over hit her in the arm. I laughed and chanted

"my turn" I chanted 5 times.

"Count for 1 minute"

"okay".

Quickly I ran into the woods I didn't know how deep the woods were so I kept running until I thought it was the end of the woods but it was the middle.

After 10 minutes Nikki called to me "I give up come out"

"Uh-oh" I thought I took a minute but I realized I was lost!

I climbed a tree and screamed at the top of lungs "Nikki I'm lost!"

Then I started wondering why I was hungry and what was going happen if my parents found out about this but mostly I was just worrying about what w

After what seemed like forever sitting in that tree Nikki yelled "run to the treehouse!" I followed her instructions and raced to the tree house.

After I got back to her house nikki wrote me and Katie will never play hide and seek in the woods again. She finished writing just as my parents were pulling up in the driveway.

They never found out I got lost but they were very very close. Too close,

That was a month ago Nikki and I have had several pladates since this happened but we kept our promise and never played in the woods again

The End!
