

My Worst Vacation

Once upon a time, in the middle of the night, my sister Anna and my 3 brothers Mike, Will, and Jack came rushing into my room. They said that we were going on vacation.

I jumped out of bed and went to my dad's room. He was there waiting for me. He said, "Sabi put on the clothes that I put on your dresser." When I went to look in my dresser, I saw the clothes that he put out for me to wear and I put them on. I looked so ugly in them so I shouted, "Dad I look like a lumberjack! Do I have to wear this?" "Yes" My dad replied. I groaned. In about 16 minutes, I heard my dad telling Anna that she can pick wherever she wanted us to go for vacation. She picked dude ranch. "Who would want to go to a stupid dude ranch?" I asked my sister. I told my dad that I did not want to go and I would rather do 50 pages of homework instead of going on that vacation. Dad said that we are all going. My mom made us have to get into our small car instead of using our van That we could all fit in comfortably. As we were driving to dude ranch, the car broke down. Luckily the car kind of kept going until its engine busted. We had to walk 21 miles to get to dude ranch.

When we got to dude ranch, we saw a sign that said "No cellphones allowed in the ranch". My family and I hide our cellphones inside our boots. Unfortunately, some lady came over and started checking us. She felt our pockets and checked all our belongings. When she was about to leave, she saw Will kind of wiggling and shaking his boots. The lady said "Are you okay, why do you keep wiggling and shaking your boots?" Will kept on wiggling until the lady saw his phone. She took it and threw it into a bucket full of water. She then took all our phones from our boots and threw them in the water before she let us in!

We got inside our hotel and the first thing I noticed was trash all over the lobby! I had a feeling that this was not going to be the vacation place we expected to be. When we walked up to our room, it was so cold inside. I tried to close the windows but they were all stuck open. Also worms were crawling on the wall and on the floor. The worst part was that when you fall asleep, these worms would fall on you then crawl up your mouth, nose and ears. Even they can crawl on your food while you're eating. It was so nasty that we all refused to eat the whole time we were there!

Another worst thing is that it snowed at night and since all the windows were stuck open, the snow just blew inside our room and it was even more cold and freezing. I was really looking to leave this place. I asked my mom how many days we were going to stay there and she said we were going to stay for a week. I asked her if we could go to a different place and she agreed. The problem was that we didn't have a car to get us to a different place.

My dad had to called his friend to came and pick him up so he can go fix our broken car so that it can transport us to a different vacation place. He did not make it back to dude ranch until midnight. We had to stay there one more night because he did not want us to drive at night because of bad roads. The next day, mam said we could go wherever we wanted. We choose to go to a skateboard range. This is the BMX which is the craziest place on earth. The only problem is that Anna and I did not know how to skateboard. We decided to go anyway. When we got there, everyone started skateboarding while Anna and I sat down and watched. After watching them for some time, we thought we got the hang of it so we also started skateboarding. Anna was skating so well so I thought I could do better than her. I grabbed the board and started skating really fast. Before I knew it, I was flying backwards and hit my head on the concrete. I did not cry neither did I quit. I just tried again and again until I finally got it right. We had a lot of fun there that I forgot all about the bad experience we had at the beginning.
