

The Mysterious Dream

I felt dizzy, everything looked blurry like I was wearing a glasses. " Dina, if you're too dizzy, you can go to sleep early" told my mom. She was very anxious. " Ok, I'll go to sleep early." I muttered. As I closed my eyes, I fell. I'm trying to tell you that I went falling like I was falling from sky. I was too scared so I screamed, but nobody answered, My voice echoed. And few minutes later I opened my eyes and I looked around. The place was all dark. I shouted like I was going to cry. "Is someone there?" No answers. I walked and walked. And I hesitated. Something was coming to my way. It was sharp and shiny. It was .....Arrow!!! It was going to hit me!!! It went faster and faster and suddenly I got hit. But the thing was I didn't get hurt. And something popped. I whirled around. I was riding on a slide when I opened my eyes. It was long as an elephant's trunk. Then I noticed that it was an elephant's trunk. The speed got faster and I got eaten by that animal. And I popped again. Now I was in the edge of the cliff and rainfall was flowing. I couldn't balance and fell down. Along the way, the dragon caught me in the middle of the rainfall, but the other dragon fought with the dragon who carried me and fell down. I didn't feel any wind blowing at all. And then 5 minutes later I splashed into the water and pop! I woke up. My eyes fluttered open and it was already morning. I wrote all about my dream in my notebook. While I was writing, I felt cold. Then what was it? Was it something really happened?
